

Boston Herald, Aug 12

To the Supt of the Mint,
Phila

Sir:

Will you be so kind as to fill out the enclosed blanks and return it to me? I am anxious to obtain the information for use in an editorial.

Yours respectfully,

René Bache.

The present intrinsic value of subsidiary U. S. coins is as follows, as nearly as it can be given in Each case : -

Copper Cent - - - - -

Nickle 5^{ct} piece - - - - -

Silver (Bland) Dollar - - - - -

Gold Dollar - - - - -

Silver ten-cent piece - - - - -

" 25 - " " - - - - -

" 50 - " " - - - - -

$20 gold piece - - - - -

$5 " " - - - - -

$10 " " - - - - -

4156

Boston.

Aug 12/86

Reine Backe
Boston Herald

Please fill enclosed
Blank & return it.

Aug. 12th - 1886.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 141

[Abstract:] Please fill enclosed Blank & return it.

August 12, 1886

Boston Herald, Aug. 12

To the Supt. of the Mint,
Phila.

Sir:

Will you be so kind as to fill out the enclosed blanks and return it to me? I am anxious to obtain the information for use in our editorial.

Yours respectfully,
René Bache.

[Enclosed note:]

The present intrinsic value of subsidiary U.S. coins is as follows, as nearly as it can be given in each coin: -

Copper Cent	----
Nickel 5 ct. piece	----
Silver (Bland) Dollar	----
Gold Dollar	----
Silver ten-cent piece	----
“ 25 – “	“ ----
“ 50 – “	“ ----
$20 gold piece	----
$5 “	“ ----
$10 “	“ ----